

Leslie Z. Walker

Leslie Z. Walker is an associate with Abbott & Kindermann, LLP. She primarily practices in the areas of land use, environmental, and real estate law.

Ms. Walker represents the firm's private clients such as developers, mining, and agricultural land owners as well as public agency clients in matters relating to land use entitlements. Her experience includes subdivision map extensions, California Environmental Quality Act ("CEQA") litigation, and air quality issues.

Ms. Walker is a member of the State Bar of California, the Environmental and Real Property Sections of the Sacramento County Bar Association, and admitted to practice before the state courts in California and the U.S. District Court, Eastern District of California. She currently serves as the Vice President of the Sacramento Bar Association's Real Property Section, is a member of the American Planning Association Sacramento Chapter, and the Urban Land Institute, and was a 2008 Building Industry Association, BUILD (Building Universal Industry Leadership & Development) Recruit.

Ms. Walker authored "Warming Up to Global Climate Change" for the Public Law Journal, and co-authored "In CEQA Litigation, When is an Agency Required to Include Internal Agency Emails in the Record of Proceedings?"